THE BASIS OF WORK

AS OUTLINED BY THE NORMAL SCHOOL PRESIDENTS.

AT MEETING IN CHICAGO

President Richardson Was in Attendance—To Emphasize the Preparation of Teachers.

President Ira Richardson of the Normal school was in attendance at the north central council of state normal schools at Chicago the fore part of the week. The presidents of the other four state normal schools of Missouri, W. T. Carrington of Springfield, John R. Kirk of Kirksville, W. J. Hawkins of Warrensburg, W. S. Darmont of Cape Girardeau, were also present at the meeting.

The five Missouri presidents agreed unanimously on the following statements and announcements:

A pressing educational need in Missouri is better teaching, better social and economic conditions in the rural districts. The state normal schools, believing it to be their peculiar function, hereby agree to bend unremitting energies to the solution of these rural life problems. To this end they will reorganize and redirect, so far as may be necessary, the departments of rural education, home economics, agriculture and manual arts.

Recognizing the strong demand made on the normal schools for teachers and principals of the new consolidated high schools and for teachers of agriculture, home economics and other subjects to be taught in high schools, the normal schools will continue to carry courses extensive enough and peculiarly adapted to the complete preparation for all such positions.

The basis of entrance to all normal school courses will be the completion of the state prescribed courses for first class high schools.

Graduates of first class high schools shall be required to offer thirty semester hours' work of college rank for the elementary certificate, not less than fifteen semester hours of which shall be in the fields of psychology, methods and management, including practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

Students entering from high schools other than first class high schools must complete in the normal school the equivalent of a first class high school course, plus thirty semester hours' work of college rank for the elementary certificate, not less than fifteen semester hours of which shall be in the fields of psychology, methods and management, including practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

Sixty semester hours' work of college rank will be required of those who have completed a full first class high school course for the diploma, with designated ability to teach and supervise in elementary schools. Of the said sixty semester hours not less than twenty-five semester hours shall be in the field of psychology, methods, management and the history of education, practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

Ninety semester hours' work of college rank will be required of those who have completed a full first class high school course for the diploma, with designated ability to teach and supervise elementary high school and technical subjects, not less than thirty hours of which shall be in education.

One hundred and twenty semester hours' work of college rank shall be required for a bachelor's degree. Not less than thirty semester hours shall be in education with due regard to some special service in teaching.

MRS. GEORGE INGERSON DEAD.

Did Not Regain Consciousness After Paralytic Stroke Last Saturday Evening.

Mrs. George M. Ingerson, who was stricken with paralysis last Saturday evening about 5:30 o'clock, died Tuesday afternoon at 2:10 o'clock at the Ingerson home, 1018 North Main street. Mrs. Ingerson did not regain consciousness after the stroke came. She suffered a lighter stroke the 24th day of July last, and although she apparently regained her strength she did not fully recover from it.

The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home, conducted by Rev. Gilbert S. Cox of the First M. E. church. Burial in Miriam cemetery. Mrs. Ingerson had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since childhood.

Mrs. Ingerson was born in Gardner, Mo., September 23, 1849. Her maiden name was Clara E. Bartlett. When a child she came with her parents, Amher and Sophronia Bartlett, to Highland, Kan., where they lived a few years. Later they moved to Georgetown, Col., where she married, May 2, 1878, to George Ingerson. In November, 1880, they came to Missouri and settled on their farm, five miles north of Maryville, in the Pickering neighborhood. About nine years ago they moved to their present home in Maryville.

Seven children were born to them, six of whom are living. They are Mrs. Flora E. Green of Stanberry, Ada, wife of Ernest Bainum, north of Maryville; C. Purcell Ingerson, living on the homestead farm; Anice P. Ingerson, at home; Mrs. Ethel C. Doyle of Schafer, N. D.; Alice, wife of A. R. Harper of Maryville.

DO YOU POSSESS CIVIC PRIDE?

If Not, You Might Very Well Emulate the Berliner in Your Town.

The American man is notoriously careless about the condition of street cars, stations and streets in his own town, but watch him in cities abroad where public sentiment as well as city ordinance protects the city's health and beauty, says the Pictorial Review for March.

The American who leaves his newspaper on the park bench or tosses it into an areaway in Chicago, Cleveland or Indianapolis, will do nothing of the sort when in Berlin or Paris. He will fold it up neatly and carry it to the nearest depository for trash. It is not only against the law, but it is the custom of the country. He would feel ashamed to litter up the immaculately clean streets. A pertinent instance of this sort was told by an American in Berlin who was entertaining a friend, another American, last summer. They had just had their lunch, and upon leaving the restaurant, the friend pulled out an American cigar with a gay band. Tearing off the band, he started to throw it on the sidewalk just as he would do if he were at home, but they had just been talking about the immaculate cleanliness of Berlin streets, so instead, he folded up the cigar band and put it in his pockets. "When you are in Berlin, you must do as the Berliners do," he said with a shame-faced smile.

Here was a man quite indifferent to the condition of the busy American city in which he had lived, living within a few months to the force of public sentiment and example. Berlin has the finest street cleaning system in the world, but better and more effective than its splendid force of white wings, its admirably framed ordinances, its covered garbage and trash wagons, its daily flushing of streets, is the force of individual example and civic pride.

You can carry the spirit of Berlin into your town if you will have a clean-up day in 1914 and carry on the work and the spirit through a single year. In 1915, it will have become a habit. The women will be the municipal housekeepers, the inspiration of your city or town beautiful.

LETTER FROM CROY

MEETS DR. K. MALOTTE ON THE PLAINS OF UTAH.

DELAYED BY WASHOUT

Was Walking Down Track—Heard His Name Called From Another Train and Sees Dr. Malotte.

A letter received by The Democrat-Forum from Homer Croy at Salt Lake City, Utah, who is on his way to Los Angeles and San Francisco, where he will sail in about a month for a seven months' trip in China, India, Egypt and Africa, in the interest of Leslie's Weekly, says that the train he was a passenger on was delayed two days. The letter was written Monday and is as follows:

"Isn't it funny how things work out? Yesterday, going through Utah, a washout delayed my train and we were sidetracked on the plains of Utah. Hours and hours we had to lay out. So I was walking down the track, lonesome as a pine, when I heard my name called. I couldn't believe it, away out here, a day's trek from civilization. So I thought to myself, 'Oh, a confidence man at last!' Then I looked up and there on the observation platform of another train was Karl Malotte of Maryville—Dr. Malotte, I mean—prosperous looking as a vice president, and, what do you think—a cutaway coat!

"He's now at St. Anthony, Idaho, the busiest man in town. Prosperity is now his handmaid—and she seems to have a steady job. Lots of times he makes a drive of 128 miles to keep some poor soul from heading heavenward. When I met him he was on his way to Long Beach, Cal., to join his family. He says he's coming back to Maryville soon on a visit.

"But now wasn't that funny, my running onto him away out here in Utah, and him on another train?

"HOMER CROY."

TARKIO WON GAME

DEFEATED THE NORMAL TEAM BY 26 TO 20.

LOCALS AHEAD IN FIRST

Injuries to Vandersloot and Watson in the Second Half—Next Game on Friday Night.

In one of the hottest contests seen on the local court this year the Normals were defeated 26-20. During the first half the Normals did their best work. Tarkio started things, making the first basket, but the locals came back and took the lead and kept it throughout the first half, which ended 11-10 for the Normal. In the second half Tarkio took the lead, and Vandersloot sprained his ankle at the very start of this half, but the plucky captain would not leave the game, but stayed in and did some mighty fine floor work after this injury. Shortly after Vandersloot was hurt, Watson, the other forward, hurt his arm and was replaced by Ford. The game was very fast from start to finish and the second half was somewhat rough. McReynolds did some very good work at guard and kept Thomas, the Tarkio star forward from making many baskets.

As usual, the Normals played a very good defensive game but were weak on the offensive. This is due to the fact that they have practiced the defensive game all year to hold down the scores against the heavier opponents they have had, and they have been unable to change their style of game. The Normals will practice tonight in preparation for the game with Kansas City university Friday night.

Vandersloot is out of the game for the rest of the season, on account of a badly sprained ankle. Hanson, who should have been here to officiate at this game, for some reason or other did not show up, and Elder and Polson were substituted.

Summary:
Tarkio—Thomas 1, Hawthorne 6, Peterson 2, Boettner, Coe.
Maryville—Vandersloot 1, Watson 1, Powell 1, Scott 1, McReynolds 1, Ford 1.
Free Throws—Hawthorne 8, Vandersloot 6, Scott 4.

The subject for tonight's sermon will be "The Prodigal Son," the sermon that was postponed from Sunday night.

STARTED WEEPING MULBERRY.A Carthage, Mo., Nurseryman Probated Seedling That Crept on the Ground.

A Missourian originated the weeping mulberry tree. He was John C. Teas, a nurseryman of Carthage, Mo., who died not long ago.

When the Kansas lands were being settled by the granting of government tracts, one requirement was that trees should be planted. The government did not specify the kinds of trees. Mr. Teas found sale for thousands of young mulberry seedlings to settlers, as the trees were very hardy and easily propagated.

One seedling was found that crept along the ground. Mr. Teas took a branch from it and grafted to upon a normal mulberry seedling. The result was that he obtained an ornamental tree, which is grown all over the world on lawns and gardens.—University Missourian.

This Store Makes a Specialty of Suits for Stout Women

This year, more than ever before, we have paid particular attention to selecting a representative showing of stylish suits for stout women.

We realize that the average store, while supplying the misses and the small women, fails to provide models for other than the regular sizes.

Even the suits generally shown have not the beauty of line, or the beauty of quality of fabric, which distinguishes the sizes most in demand.

This makes it hard for the stout woman who prizes the beauty which comes with a perfect fitting suit of the newest model, to select a garment which meets with her approval.

We have provided for stout women.

We have a complete showing of suits which are not only made from the latest fabrics, but which reflect, in a conservative way, the newest lines of the season.

Prices range from $16.75 to $35.00. The shades most in evidence are Blue, Tango, Taupe, Gold and Black.

So complete are our preparations that we feel we can satisfy nearly every demand that will be made on our stock.

The new suits are in and we are in a position to show you exactly what the newest styles are.

You are invited to call and see them.

An outline of the study was given by Miss Lenore Schumacher, when the following questions were answered: What turn in the fortunes of Orlando is noted in scene 1? by Mrs. G. B. Holmes. Through Touchstone what aspects of life do we see satirized? Miss Grace Langan. How does Shakespeare usually depict rustics? Mrs. J. F. Montgomery. What did Jaques like in Orlando, and why did he allow himself to be so easily entrapped? Miss Alma Nash. Was Orlando too full of love and self to appreciate Jaques, and what is the underlying pathos of this dialogue? Mrs. E. G. Orear. Indicate the kind of humor in scene 3, Mrs. M. G. Tate. Scene 4 throws what new light upon Rosalind? Mrs. Townsend. How is it shown that Phebe falls in love with Rosalind, and do you see Phebe in the way that Rosalind did? Mrs. D. J. Thomas. Collect the bits of personal description of Rosalind in the play and tell what she looks like, Mrs. Clyde Busby. Compare Phebe and Rosalind as lovers of men and how differently do their thoughts run? A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup company." Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

CHRONIC COLDS

Are Contracted by Changeable Weather
—A Simple Remedy.

Sudden changes are particularly trying for old people or those who suffer from a weakened, run-down condition, chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, but if such persons would only apply common sense methods in the treatment of their condition, much discomfort and suffering might be avoided.

The most essential thing to do is to build up strength, enrich the blood, increase vital resistance and to accomplish this nothing equals Vinol, our cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. M. J. Grimes of Springfield, Ohio, says: "I was badly run-down, nervous and weak, and while in this condition I contracted a heavy cold and rheumatism. Vinol was recommended, and I am happy to say it cured my cold and restored me to health again."

Old people, delicate children, run-down, overworked and tired women, those suffering from bronchitis, chronic coughs and colds should try a bottle of Vinol. We will return your money if it does not help you. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

BIG BUSINESS CUTS BOOZE.

Public Sentiment Has Also Changed;
It Is No Longer Even the Custom to Drink."

"The demand by big business that its employees refrain from the use of intoxicants has been our greatest aid in the fight for national prohibition," Mrs. Nelle G. Burgher, president of the Missouri W. C. T. U., said at Kansas City yesterday, according to the Times.

"Public sentiment has also changed," continued Mrs. Burgher. "At one time it was the custom to drink, but now the less you drink the better off you are. Self preservation is the first law of nature, and it has been proven that liquor will not aid in this. If a man is under the influence of intoxicants he cannot do himself justice, neither can he give his employer all that is required."

Mrs. Burgher asserts that in her nine years as missionary in Mexico it was impressed upon her that liquor was retarding the progress of that country. She says:

"The situation there now would not be nearly so critical if it were not that everybody drinks. If the poorer classes haven't money enough to buy food they always have something to drink, and when they are under the influence of their national drink it is impossible to tell just what they will do."

National suffrage would help the prohibition question, but from the way it looks now prohibition will arrive first, according to Mrs. Burgher. "It has been demonstrated in states where women have a vote that the drys predominate," she said. "The Illinois election, where the local option bill was passed, was a good illustration. That bill carried five to one, and it was the vote of the women that did it."

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, WEDNESDAY, FEB. 25, 1914.

NO. 229.

THE BASIS OF WORK

AS OUTLINED BY THE NORMAL SCHOOL PRESIDENTS.

AT MEETING IN CHICAGO

President Richardson Was in Attendance—To Emphasize the Preparation of Teachers.

President Ira Richardson of the Normal school was in attendance at the north central council of state normal schools at Chicago the fore part of the week. The presidents of the other four state normal schools of Missouri, W. T. Carrington of Springfield, John R. Kirk of Kirksville, W. J. Hawkins of Warrensburg, W. S. Dearmont of Cape Girardeau, were also present at the meeting.

The five Missouri presidents agreed unanimously on the following statements and announcements:

A pressing educational need in Missouri is better teaching, better social and economic conditions in the rural districts. The state normal schools, believing it to be their peculiar function, hereby agree to bend unremitting energies to the solution of these rural life problems. To this end they will reorganize and redirect, so far as may be necessary, the departments of rural education, home economics, agriculture and manual arts.

The normal school will continue to emphasize the preparation of teachers for rural and elementary schools by carrying out fully the requirements now prescribed or may hereafter be prescribed by the state superintendent for the rural state certificate.

Recognizing the strong demand made on the normal schools for teachers and principals of the new consolidated high schools and for teachers of agriculture, home economics and other subjects to be taught in high schools, the normal schools will continue to carry courses extensive enough and peculiarly adapted to the complete preparation for all such positions.

The basis of entrance to all normal school courses will be the completion of the state prescribed courses for first class high schools.

Graduates of first class high schools shall be required to offer thirty semester hours' work of college rank for the elementary certificate, not less than fifteen semester hours of which shall be in the fields of psychology, methods and management, including practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

Students entering from high schools other than first class high schools must complete in the normal school the equivalent of a first class high school course, plus thirty semester hours' work of college rank for the elementary certificate, not less than fifteen semester hours of which shall be in the fields of psychology, methods and management, including practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

Sixty semester hours' work of college rank will be required of those who have completed a full first class high school course for the diploma, with designated ability to teach and supervise in elementary schools. Of the said sixty semester hours not less than twenty-five semester hours shall be in the field of psychology, methods, management and the history of education, practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

Ninety semester hours' work of college rank will be required of those who have completed a full first class high school course for the diploma, with designated ability to teach and supervise in elementary schools. Of the said sixty semester hours not less than twenty-five semester hours shall be in the field of psychology, methods, management and the history of education, practice teaching and studies in the teaching of elementary subjects.

One hundred and twenty semester hours' work of college rank shall be required for a bachelor's degree. Not less than thirty semester hours shall be in education with due regard to some special service in teaching.

MRS. GEORGE INGERSOHN DEAD.
Did Not Regain Consciousness After Paralytic Stroke Last Saturday Evening.

Mrs. George M. Ingerson, who was stricken with paralysis last Saturday evening about 5:30 o'clock, died Tuesday afternoon at 2:10 o'clock at the Ingerson home, 1018 North Main street. Mrs. Ingerson did not regain consciousness after the stroke came. She suffered a lighter stroke the 24th day of July last, and although she apparently regained her strength she did not fully recover from it.

The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family home, conducted by Rev. Gilbert S. Cox of the First M. E. church, Burial in Miriam cemetery. Mrs. Ingerson had been a member of the Methodist Episcopal church since childhood.

Mrs. Ingerson was born in Gardner, Mo., September 23, 1849. Her maiden name was Clara E. Bartlett. When a child she came with her parents, Amber and Sophronia Bartlett, to Highland, Kan., where they lived a few years. Later they moved to Georgetown, Col., where she married, May 2, 1878, to George Ingerson. In November, 1880, they came to Missouri and settled on their farm, five miles north of Maryville, in the Pickering neighborhood. About nine years ago they moved to their present home in Maryville.

Seven children were born to them, six of whom are living. They are Mrs. Flora E. Green of Stanberry, Ada, wife of Ernest Bainum, north of Maryville; C. Purcell Ingerson, living on the homestead farm; Anice P. Ingerson, at home; Mrs. Ethel C. Doyle of Schafer, N. D.; Alice, wife of A. R. Harper of Maryville.

DO YOU POSSESS CIVIC PRIDE?

If Not, You Might Very Well Emulate the Berliner in Your Town.

The American man is notoriously careless about the condition of street cars, stations and streets in his own town, but watch him in cities abroad where public sentiment as well as city ordinance protects the city's health and beauty, says the Pictorial Review for March.

The American who leaves his newspaper on the park bench or tosses it into an areaway in Chicago, Cleveland or Indianapolis, will do nothing of the sort when in Berlin or Paris. He will fold it up neatly and carry it to the nearest depository for trash. It is not only against the law, but it is the custom of the country. He would feel ashamed to litter up the immaculately clean streets. A pertinent instance of this sort was told by an American in Berlin who was entertaining a friend, another American, last summer. They had just had their lunch, and upon leaving the restaurant, the friend pulled out an American cigar with a gay band. Tearing off the band, he started to throw it on the sidewalk just as he would do if he were at home, but they had just been talking about the immaculate cleanliness of Berlin streets, so instead, he folded up the cigar band and put it in his pockets. "When you are in Berlin, you must do as the Berliners do," he said with a shame-faced smile.

He was a man quite indifferent to the condition of the busy American city in which he had lived, yielding within a few months to the force of public sentiment and example. Berlin has the finest street cleaning system in the world, but better and more effective than its splendid force of white wings, its admirably framed ordinances, its covered garbage and trash wagons, its daily flushing of streets, is the force of individual example and civic pride.

You can carry the spirit of Berlin into your town if you will have a clean-up day in 1914 and carry on the work and the spirit through a single year. In 1915, it will have become a habit. The women will be the municipal housekeepers, the inspiration of your city or town beautiful.

LETTER FROM CROY TARKIO WON GAME

MEETS DR. K. MALOTTE ON THE PLAINS OF UTAH.

DELAYED BY WASHOUT LOCALS AHEAD IN FIRST

Was Walking Down Track—Heard His Name Called From Another Train and Sees Dr. Malotte.

A letter received by The Democrat-Forum from Homer Croy at Salt Lake City, Utah, who is on his way to Los Angeles and San Francisco, where he will sail in about a month for a seven months' trip in China, India, Egypt and Africa, in the interest of Leslie's Weekly, says that the train he was a passenger on was delayed two days. The letter was written Monday and is as follows:

"Isn't it funny how things work out? Yesterday, going through Utah, a washout delayed my train and we were sidetracked on the plains of Utah. Hours and hours we had to lay out. So I was walking down the track, lonesome as a pine, when I heard my name called. I couldn't believe it, away out here, a day's trek from civilization. So I thought to myself, 'Oh, a confidence man at last!' Then I looked up and there on the observation platform of another train was Karl Malotte of Maryville—Dr. Malotte, I mean—prosperous looking as a vice president, and, what do you think—a cutaway coat!

"He's now at St. Anthony, Idaho, the busiest man in town. Prosperity is now his handmaiden—and she seems to have a steady job. Lots of times he makes a drive of 128 miles to keep some poor soul from heading heavenward. When I met him he was on his way to Long Beach, Cal., to join his family. He says he's coming back to Maryville soon on a visit.

"But now wasn't that funny, my running onto him away out here in Utah, and him on another train?"

HOMER CROY."

Mrs. Christina M. Staal, formerly of Maryville, but now living in St. Joseph, received a check for $2,000 from the Woodmen of the World Wednesday, this being insurance on her husband, who died in St. Joseph, January 4, 1914. Mr. Staal has been sick for a long time and had spent practically all he had been trying to regain his health. Mrs. Staal has expressed herself as being very grateful to the local camp of the Woodmen of the World for the care of the Woodmen of the World for years. She is the force of individual example and civic pride.

THE MONTANYE FUNERAL.

Many Heard Services at the Christian Church Tuesday Afternoon—Body to Maryville for Burial.

Funeral services for Kenneth Frank Montanye, the Pickering young man who was accidentally shot Saturday evening at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Clark, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Christian church in Pickering by the pastor, Rev. E. W. Kilian.

The body was brought to Maryville on the 4:44 Burlington train and placed in the vault at Miriam cemetery to await burial later in Oak Hill cemetery by the body of the young man's father, John Montanye. The pall bearers were classmates of the young man in the Christian church Bible school, where he was a member. They were Milton Hull, Orlo Lincoln, Clifford Moon, Claud Moon, Champ Rice, Dale Green.

Accompanying the body to Maryville were the pall bearers, C. R. Harman and the following Maryville people who attended the funeral: Mrs. E. J. Williams, Mrs. M. J. Sherlock, Mr. and Mrs. Byron Frost, Mrs. Glover Kelley and Mrs. C. A. Cunningham.

The mother, Mrs. John Montanye of Kansas City, and Miss Pearl Montanye also of Kansas City were present at the services. Mrs. LeRoy McGee, a sister, of that city was unable to attend.

THE HOLKER FUNERAL.

Services Will Be Held at St. Patrick's Church in This City Thursday Morning at 9 o'clock.

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Matilda Holker, who died Saturday morning at her home, west of Hopkins, will be held Thursday morning at 9 o'clock, at St. Patrick's church in this city. The pastor, Rev. Fr. H. F. Niemann, will preach the sermon. Burial will take place in St. Patrick's cemetery.

Mrs. Holker is the widow of Henry Holker, one of the early residents of Hopkins, who died nineteen years ago. She was born in Rock county, Wisconsin, August 17, 1853. She is survived by seven children, all living in Hopkins vicinity. They are Joseph Holker, Mrs. Wm. Jones, Mrs. Henry Behn, Miss Anna Holker, John, Edward and Charles Holker. She is also survived by four brothers, Joseph Maley of Greenwood, Texas; James Maley of Wilda, Kan.; William Maley of Kincaid, Kan., and Henry Maley of Mound City.

Mrs. W. A. Bailey received word Wednesday of the death of her cousin, Henry C. Stowe, a prominent business man of Hartford, Conn. His death occurred February 19. He was a relative of the husband of Harriet Beecher Stowe. Mr. Stowe had been a member of the Hartford Masonic lodge since a young man, and Robert O. Tyler G. A. R. post.

A COUNTY LEAGUE

NOW BEING TALKED OF BY BASE BALL FANS.

TO INCLUDE SIX TEAMS

The Maryville Ball Enthusiasts Think Such a League Could Be Formed and Could Pay Expenses.

There is some talk of having a county base ball league in Nodaway county this year, at least the Maryville base ball enthusiasts are figuring on it. For the past few years there has been a great deal of talk in regard to forming a county league, but so far nothing has come of it. This year a determined effort will be made to form a league with six teams.

A six-team league with two or three games a week played in each town is what the

The state been inspector of Iowa is advocating the keeping of beehives as a remedy for divorce. But that would hardly cement the severed relations of the Progressives and the G. O. P's. Both factions have been stung.

The country lost a great man when Senator Bacon of Georgia passed away. It was such men as Bacon that kept the Democratic ship afloat when it took a good pilot to weather the storm.

Some of the Republican newspapers are saying that President Wilson is a very sick man. Well, it is a great pity that we haven't had more sick presidents in the White House. However the wisdom of Wilson is not to be attributed to his bad health.

STARTED WEEPING MULBERRY.

A Carthage, Mo., nurseryman propagated seedling that crept on the ground.

A Missourian originated the weeping mulberry tree. He was John C. Teas, a nurseryman of Carthage, Mo., who died not long ago.

When the Kansas lands were being settled by the granting of government tracts, one requirement was that trees should be planted. The government did not specify the kinds of trees. Mr. Teas found sale for thousands of young mulberry seedlings to settlers, as the trees were very hardy and easily propagated.

One seedling was found that crept along the ground. Mr. Teas took a branch from it and grafted it upon a normal mulberry seedling. The result was that he obtained an ornamental tree, which is grown all over the world on lawns and gardens.—University Missourian.

HYOMEI RELIEVES IN FIVE MINUTES

You Breathe It.

If your head is all stuffed up from a cold or catarrh, you suffer with dull headaches and seem lacking in vitality, or are constantly sniffing and coughing, you need a remedy that will give the quickest, most effective and lasting relief possible—something that will go right to the spot, clear the head and throat and end your misery.

Surely use Hyomei—all druggists sell it. It is just such a remedy, and is entirely harmless and pleasant to use—you breathe it—no stomach dosing.

The antiseptic oils of Hyomei mix with the air you breathe—it's health-giving medication immediately reaches the sore and inflamed mucous membrane—you feel better in five minutes. It is practically impossible to use Hyomei and not only be relieved but permanently benefited. Oscar-Henry Drug Co. will refund your money if you are not satisfied. The Car That Stands The Searchlight Of Severest Scrutiny—

Whatever your expectations, the Overland satisfies

Few men have identical reasons for buying an automobile, but the Overland satisfies them all.

This man has a liking for mechanics. The masterful construction of the Overland motor delights him.

Here's another man to whom mechanics is a closed book. This same perfection of construction settles his possible doubts.

Its beauty delights the fastidious—its riding qualities suggest a flight through the air. Its first cost and economy of operation put it within reach of all who can afford an automobile.

Willys genius inspired the Overland and built up the skilled organization and mammoth plant to produce it. All this you find reflected in Overland perfection—in the three-point motor suspension—the ample-sized bearings—the three-quarter floating rear system—the liberal use of expensive drop forgings—the luxurious appointments.

This Store Makes a Specialty of Suits for Stout Women

This year, more than ever before, we have paid particular attention to selecting a representative showing of stylish suits for stout women.

We realize that the average store, while supplying the misses and the small women, fails to provide models for other than the regular sizes.

Even the suits generally shown have not the beauty of line, or the beauty of quality of fabric, which distinguishes the sizes most in demand.

This makes it hard for the stout woman who prizes the beauty which comes with a perfect fitting suit of the newest model, to select a garment which meets with her approval.

We have provided for stout women.

We have a complete showing of suits which are not only made from the latest fabrics, but which reflect, in a conservative way, the newest lines of the season.

Prices range from $16.75 to $35.00. The shades most in evidence are Blue, Tang, Taupe, Gold and Black.

So complete are our preparations that we feel we can satisfy nearly every demand that will be made on our stock.

The new suits are in and we are in a position to show you exactly what the newest styles are.

You are invited to call and see them.

The chairman, Mrs. Berney Harris, is absent in St. Louis. Roll call was responded to with quotations from Act III. An outline of the study was given by Miss Lenore Schumacher, when the following questions were answered: What turn in the fortunes of Orlando is noted in scene 1? by Mrs. G. B. Holmes. Through Touchstone what aspects of life do we see satirized? Miss Grace Langan. How does Shakespeare usually depict rustics? Mrs. J. F. Montgomery. What did Jaques like in Orlando, and why did he allow himself to be so easily entrapped? Miss Alma Nash. Was Orlando too full of love and self to appreciate Jaques, and what is the underlying pathos of this dialogue? Mrs. E. G. Orear. Indicate the kind of humor in scene 3, Mrs. M. G. Tate. Scene 4 throws what new light upon Rosalind? Mrs. Townsend. How is it shown that Phebe falls in love with Rosalind, and do you see Phebe in the way that Rosalind did? Mrs. D. J. Thomas. Collect the bits of personal description of Rosalind in the play and tell what she looks like, Mrs. Clyde Bushy. Compare Phebe and Rosalind as lovers of men and how differently do their thoughts run? Mrs. George Robert Eaton. The discussion was led by Mrs. Gallatin Craig. Mrs. J. S. Shinabarger gave current events. Mrs. Fred Hull the word drill and Mrs. Orear the parliamentary drill.

MOTHER! IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Constipated, Bitterous, Stomach Sour, Give "California Syrup of Figs."

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish; stomach sour.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other child's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation poison, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleaning" is oftentimes all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup company." Don't be fooled!—Advertisement.

CHRONIC COLDS

Are Contracted by Changeable Weather —A Simple Remedy.

Sudden changes are particularly trying for old people or those who suffer from a weakened, run-down condition, chronic coughs, colds or bronchitis, but if such persons would only apply common sense methods in the treatment of their condition, much discomfort and suffering might be avoided.

The most essential thing to do is to build up strength, enrich the blood, increase vital resistance and to accomplish this nothing equals Vinol, our cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. M. J. Grimes of Springfield, Ohio, says: "I was badly run-down, nervous and weak, and while in this condition I contracted a heavy cold and rheumatism. Vinol was recommended, and I am happy to say it cured my cold and restored me to health again."

Old people, delicate children, rundown, overworked and tired women, those suffering from bronchitis, chronic coughs and colds should try a bottle of Vinol. We will return your money if it does not help you. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

BIG BUSINESS CUTS BOOZE.

Public Sentiment Has Also Changed; It Is No Longer Even the Custom to Drink."

"The demand by big business that its employees refrain from the use of intoxicants has been our greatest aid in the fight for national prohibition," Mrs. Nelle G. Burgher, president of the Missouri W. C. T. U., said at Kansas City yesterday, according to the Times.

"Public sentiment has also changed," continued Mrs. Burgher. "At one time it was the custom to drink, but now the less you drink the better off you are. Self preservation is the first law of nature, and it has been proven that liquor will not aid in this. If a man is under the influence of intoxicants he cannot do himself justice, neither can he give his employer all that is required."

Mrs. Burgher asserts that in her nine years as missionary in Mexico it was impressed upon her that liquor was retarding the progress of that country.

She says:

"The situation there now would not be nearly so critical if it were not that everybody drinks. If the poorer classes haven't money enough to buy food they always have something to drink, and when they are under the influence of their national drink it is impossible to tell just what they will do."

National suffrage would help the prohibition question, but from the way it looks now prohibition will arrive first, according to Mrs. Burgher. "It has been demonstrated in states where women have a vote that the drys predominate," she said. "The Illinois election, where the local option bill was passed, was a good illustration. That bill carried five to one, and it was the vote of the women that did it."

In Memoriam.

The death angel came and claimed Florence Velma, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Hasty, February 22. She was 20 days old. Funeral services took place at the home of the parents, on East Fifth street, at 2:30 o'clock Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church. Burial took place in Miriam cemetery. Father, mother and two little brothers mourn the baby's loss. The child of our affections is not dead; she no longer needs our poor protection. She is in the arms of Christ himself, in the bright realms of eternal light. Day after day, year after year, we shall think of her as growing more fair.—Contributed.

True Patriots.

Amid all the snow around Pickering and vicinity there was not enough to keep Opal and Jewell Birkenholz home from school, who waded snow for a mile on the morning of Monday, February 23. They and their teacher, Mrs. George Wray, were the only ones who dared attempt to go to school at Bloomfield, out of the pupils numbering thirty-three. Their teacher came two and one-half miles on horseback.

Miss Edith Campbell of Barnard, who has been spending a week with her uncle, U. I. Willson, and family, returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pearson went to St. Joseph Tuesday evening to see Ben Hur at the Auditorium in that city.
